ABC reveals 'NYPD Blue' cop is pregnant by detective
This drama has been back on the air since 1995. In a new twist, the show has revealed the news, ABC did last week in a news release. In detailing the plot for the Jan. 6 show, it tells how the pregnant (Bessie) (Dolores) and her lover and co-protagonist partner, Det. Bobby Simone (Alamy Simons), got into a bit of a tiff because he's upset with her for putting forward and their baby in jeopardy during a shoot-out.

Seinfeld leads pack again; Carey, O'Donnell move up in Harris Poll
This is the most popular program on TV. Seinfeld leads the pack for the second straight year, according to a recent Harris Poll survey. This was before he announced that Seinfeld would be going off the air after this season. Comedy robot Tim Allen's second, with Oprah Winfrey in third and Bill Cosby in fourth. There was a tie from eight to 11 years prior, Drew Carey moving from 10th to sixth, and David Letterman's seventh. Cosby has declined. Despite his show's ratings advantage, Jay Leno finished in eighth place.

Football alternatives: fine arts, romance
College seniors, American Music Classical and CNBC have alternatives to today's football season. ABC offers a look at Romance Classics channel.
