

B-2 SUNDAY, JANUARY 4, 1998

YOUR LIFE

THE COURIER-NEWS

TELEVISION

You can't tell the outlets without a scorecard

By BRIAN LOWMY Los Angeles Times

It's not as if the digital age when all things are at the disposal of the viewer. The cable networks have been able to offer a wide range of programming...

Big names like John Madden and Terry Bradshaw add to the credibility of the Fox cable sports reports...

Tom Brubaker or Katie Couric turning on a cable network that only offers the viewer just as much as Fox's conventional cable...

MINN's quality out of the starting gate as one of the most successful networks to launch "triple-dig"...

More choices will certainly be available in the children's programming arena. Once Time Warner arrives...

David L. Smith, president of entertainment at the research firm Frank Magis Associates, said surveys show that viewers are "very choosy" when it comes to having more channels...

Realistic 'Rhodes' tells epic story

By MIKE HUGHES

Tonight's must-see Rhoads' 8 1/2 p.m. PBS feature Monday and Tuesday. The story has been told in a number of ways...

His credited work, grabbed land, set the record that led to the episode's success. The film's story is based on the book by...

principal has just been handed away to the film. The film's story is based on the book by...

Music instrumental for Shari Lewis

By SCOTT MOORE

When Shari Lewis talks, people listen — even if they can't see her lips. For 40 years, Lewis has had the TV audience...

Teacher is co-lead writer and creative supervisor. Further, "Miss Pippi" is dedicated to Lewis' late mother, just as "Lamb Chop" is dedicated to her father...

THIS WEEK

The best things to do in Central Jersey this week

THIS WEEK: The best things to do in Central Jersey this week. Includes sections for TODAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY, and SATURDAY, listing various events and activities.